ough Backbone to Give Fellow Townsmen Both Sides of Political Issues

he following reply to an icle in Wednesday's issue THE NEWS was asked to published by THE NEWS. Schuck refused the author use of his paper notwithding Mr. Shutterly wanted piece under his signature. make this explanation so the public may know the that is being made of THE WS and the attempts being le to mislead the public. following is the article ented by Mr. Shutterly to E NEWS for publication which Mr. Schuck refused ublish.

o Is Responsible for the Citizens Ticket?

question was asked in last Wedy's issue of "The News" and, as I andidate for Burgess on the Citi- Ticket, I wish to state frankly facts as to how and why my name the ticket, in order that I may it any misunderstanding or misentation arising from the article d, "Citizens Ticket." I have supporter of the independent ent ever since I have been in sen I announced myself as can- for Burgess at the solicitation ness men and friends employed ry mill in town.

re announcing myself as a candi- the Citizens Ticket I was asked organized few, who have had con- the town the past six years, to candidate for Burgess. Rather lentify myself with this "ring" come a party to their manage- the Borough, I declined. I am ked by any "ring" or corporad, if elected, have no promises ll. It is claimed that I am a sburg Steel Mill candidate. absolutely false. I have never in any Monessen Mill, except Plate Mill, and I have never onnected with the Pittsburg ill in any way. I have never vith George Nash five minutes ies in my life and, to my knowve never been approached by esentative of his. I had nothlo with getting signers for the te of nomination for the Citi ket and did not know who the were until after the papers pared. I am a property owner, business interests here, and, ed, will do all I can for what e to be the best interests of .

Very Respectfully,
F. H. SHUTTERLY.

More Business and Less Politics is what Monessen wants in Her Government.
F. H. SHUTTERLY.

SHUTTERLY.

The Reform Candidate on a Reform Platform.

We believe that our city has already been ruled too long by an organized few and that its best interests demand a change from the present management of municipal affairs. We stand for clean government and a square and honest deal to every man. We are not backed by any ring or corporation, nor are we guilty of any "trade" for support, and, if elected, have no pledges to fulfill, but will do only what we believe to be for the best interests of the town, regardless of party.

We believe the town should profit both by the country trade and river traffic. We stand for a road to the country and a street to the river. We shall work to better the city's streets and require the repair of all streets that have been dug up and not properly replaced. Do you believe these some of the needs of our Borough? If so, we solicit your vote, pledging you our hearty support to their fulfillment.

Yours respectfully.
F. H. SHUTTERLY.

POLITICAL PUZZLE.

H. Dallas McCabe said "I would rather be licked ten times over by Shutterly than Derrickson."

Question: Is H. Dallas McCabe running for Burgess?

TAXPAYER.

Zember-Frazier tonight.

Butch Zember, the local mitt artiet will try conclusions in a 10 round to a decision with Jas. Frazier who he defeated here recently, tonight at the opera house. Zember has been training faithfully under Jim Scanlon who meets Gus Rublin soon and a good exhibition is assured. Bob Reardon of Donora who has also been training under Scanlon will box 6 rounds with Jock Simco of McKeesport, and Patsy Braningan will go 6 rounds with Kid Sullivan. No one who is interested in boxing should miss this exhibition as it promises to be the best ever witnessed in the valley.

Martha Washington Social.

The Martha Washington social, held in the Presbyterian Church last evening, was both a social and financial success. A very pleasing program was carried out, solos being sung by Mrs. Harrie, Miss Seifert, Miss Boor, Miss Tood, and Miss Adams. The Glee Club also rendered several selections, Mrs. Dan McMahan and Miss Snyder recited, Miss Nellie Boor favored the audience on the guitar. Refreshments were then served by character impersonations of Geo. and Martha Washington. The ladies in charge wish to thank those who assisted in making the affair so successful.

A LETTER IN REPLY

To Communication Regarding Proposed Park Way.

In reply to the communicated article on an excommunicated street known as Park Way, the opposition to the proposed street presents to the public the following facts. In the petition to Council to lay out and open the proposed street, the width along the Presbyterian church was to be only fourteen (14) feet. The ordinance that was framed from this petition, in some way not yet understood by the opposition, provided that the width of the entire street was to be twenty-four (24) feet.

According to this ordinance the Presbyterian church stood six (6) or eight (8) feet in the street and the Methodist parsonage six (6) or eight (8) inches. Those most interested in this street repeatedly stated that it would not cost the Borough a cent and that they would put up approved bonds as a guarantee that it would not cost the Borough anything. Notwithstanding this the ordinance was framed as other ordinances and no bonds to protect the Borough were submitted. As the ordinance then stood the Borough would not only have been responsible for the enormous expense of opening up the street, but of removing the Presbyterian church and the Methodist parsonage. We fail to see where the Borough would be profited by this large outlay of money where only the few owners of the abutting properties will be benefitted. We claim that there are many streets in our town that are badly needing repairs and that the money spent on street improvements should be spent on them. We note by the article referred to that the few parties interested have a carefully itemized statement of the expenses that would be incurred by the opening of this proposed street and they state, "These figures have been carefully verified by the abutting property owners"—the parties interested. Anyone carefully investigating the fact knows that the figures given will not be one-tenth of the expense arising from putting this proposed street through. The supporters of this movement have been very careful to keep clear of the fact that this street would have to have retaining walls on both sides its entire length, protective railing its entire length, and the paving of the street which would be the next thing asked for. They fail to state that the Borough has already spent more than half the amount of the entire cost of the street as so "carefully verified by the abutting property owners" in surveying and sewering this street and publishing ordinances. As a return to the Borough for this investment, it has received, according to the record to the Treasurer's office, for the new houses built on this street the last year, the sum of $8 for sewer permits for one house. The removal of the Presbyterian church alone would cost almost as much as those interested claim the opening of the entire street would cost. We call attention to the signers of this communication and ask why it was published at this same time.

In conclusion those opposing the opening of this proposed street, here state publicly that they will withdraw all opposition, if those interested in this movement will guarantee that this street will never cost the Borough any more money and will put up sufficient approved security to relieve the Borough from any and all liability whatsoever that may be incurred thereby.

A large majority of the voters of Monessen are common honesty and if this issue is defeated it will be because some voters prefer treason to loyal duty. There is no middle ground for excuse for keeping away from the polls.

THE "hoodlum" who tears down banners may not realize it, but he is building up votes for the candidate he seeks to injure.

LOYALTY to party principles will be exemplified by placing the best man in office.

GOOD citizens will go to the polls early and vote to beat the band—the grafter's band.
